

Not sign

History suggests that now, the accountants can get innocent Jean Nader and Sheila O'Connell to sign what ever they want them to sign, and that I will not be able to get them to sign anything that the accountants don't want them to sign? Can you imagine my being able to get Jean Nader and Sheila O'Connell to sign a deed for Accotink now?

Re: Estate of Jean M. O'Connell

Dear Mr. Prichard,

Since you represent Mr. Anthony O'Connell, who has once more indicated his displeasure with the administration of this estate, we feel it is best to communicate with you before any precipitous action is taken.

The estate remains undistributed at this time for several reasons. First, no closing letter has been received from the IRS. Second, an amendment to the estate tax returns was filed at the end of June reflecting the existence of a CD which had not been discovered until recently (see IRS correspondence attached).

The first accounting, which was filed in October, 1992 (approximately three months before it was due) was approved on March 20, 1993. The delay apparently being inherent in the Commissioner's office. Debts and Demands were requested on November 13, 1992 and final action was taken by the Commissioner on them on December 30, 1992. A request for discharge of liability letter was sent to the IRS on April 18, 1993. On the same date an informal request as to the cause of the delay was sent to the IRS.

The Philadelphia office of the IRS has spoken to Mr. White on several occasions and is "checking" on the status of things.

As is true in any estate at this point, the following needs to be done:

1. Receive closing letters for the original and amended returns.
2. File a Motion to Show Cause for distribution.
3. Have an Order to Show Cause entered after due publication.
4. Present the Order of Distribution.
5. File the fiduciary income tax returns for the period ending August 31, 1993.

6. Distribute the estate.

7. File the Second and Final Accounting. (Assuming that the tax matter is cleared so that a Third accounting is not needed.)

As was stated in Mr. White's letter to you of December 16, 1992, no distribution will be made until a final order is entered. If this is not the usual and customary procedure in Virginia, we would appreciate being enlightened.

The bulk of the estate is held in A. G. Edwards and is invested in various accounts, copies of the income from which are attached. The only major financial transaction of the estate which has occurred was in February, 1993 when Signet stock was sold at a gain of more than twice its value. Any claim that the Estate is losing money is spurious.

Mr. O'Connell recently has requested to know how much was charged for the preparation of the amended return. The answer is zero, since Mr. White prepared it as well as the original returns, even though that task is often given to accountants.

Mr. O'Connell's serious accusations against Mr. White, which he lodged with the Virginia State Bar were categorized by the Bar as having "no basis in fact or in law".

Mr. O'Connell's latest request to replace one of the Co-Executors has been denied.

The filing of a law suit is the prerogative of any person, however in this case, the estate will obviously hire counsel to defend itself (which will be a cost of administration) and will assert all possible defenses including Va. Code Ann. Section 8.01-271.1.

We would request that Mr. O'Connell be counseled as to these matters.

Sincerely,

Edward J. White

Dear Jean and Sheila,

I ask your support in signing the enclosed joint letter to Mr. White, and returning it to me. I believe it is self explanatory.

If you choose not to sign it, I would appreciate some notation.

Sincerely,

Tony

Dear Mr. White:

We would very much like to know about any wrongdoing for which you consider Anthony O'Connell responsible.

Would you please describe any such wrongdoing, with specifics, so that there is no misunderstanding?

We thank you in advance.
