Re: Estate of Harold A. O'Connell

Dear Mrs. O'Connell:

According to the inventory filed for the above estate the gross value was $90,650.27 and under the terms of the will one-half of the estate goes to you as the "Marital Share" (one-half being the amount allowed the wife without estate tax by IRS) and the balance goes to the "Residuary Estate" which shall be held in trust by Anthony M. O'Connell, as Trustee, and the income paid to you and, in the sole discretion of the Trustee as to time and amount, the principal of the trust may be used for your support and maintenance.

This trust must be set up since we cannot ignore the will and at your death the balance in the trust goes to your three children or their issue. At this time, we don't know who that will be.

Please advise me what is being done to set up this trust. As a non-resident, Anthony M. O'Connell can act as Trustee only if a resident of Virginia qualifies with him or a Virginia resident is designated as an agent to receive notices and processes from the Court and the Commissioner of Accounts.

It is possible that an indemnification agreement can be worked out so the trust need not be funded, but this office should not advise you about such an agreement.

Very truly yours,

Robert J. McCandlish, Jr.

The final estate account is the only thing the family needs and the only thing the family asks for. The final estate account transfers the residual estate to the trust to fund the trust and close the estate. Nothing else can fund the trust.

Anthony M. O'Connell Trust

Dear Mr. Mackall:

Enclosed is an Agreement along the lines of that discussed by us previously, which my client has signed.

Ms. Jo Ann Barnes, of Bruner, Kane & McCarthy Accountants, previously has furnished Mr. O'Connell with the numerical data which explains the derivation of the percentages reflected in the Agreement.

If you have any additions or corrections to it, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Edward J. White

Re: Estate of Harold A. O'Connell

Dear Mrs. O'Connell:

At long last we have a signed Agreement concerning the funding of the Trust. The Agreement is enclosed.

The only difference between this Agreement and the previous agreement which I had drafted is the change in the percentage of ownership between you and the Trusts. Originally, Ms. Barnes had computed the ownership of the Trust at 43.525. She and Mr. Mackall and I now agree that the figures should be 46.0994. The Agreement also contains a provision in paragraph 5 that if the property is sold during your life, that you will be reimbursed for the principal of all real estate taxes on that property.

Mr. O'Connell was unwilling to agree to pay interest on the real estate tax advancements. While I am at a loss to understand his attitude, I am of the opinion that we would be best served by signing the Agreement as is.

Ms. Barnes has computed that through 1984 you paid taxes in the amount of $13,841.24.

Please sign the Agreement and return it to me as soon as possible, and I will forward it to Mr. Mackall for the Co-Trustees' signature and filing with the Commissioner of Accounts. At that point the trust will then be funded and the responsibility for filing accounts and inventories will be that of the Trustees.

We can then have Ms. Barnes complete the final accounting for the Estate and the matter will be closed.

Sincerely,

Edward J. White

If it meets with your approval, I would appreciate your signing it and returning it to me so that I might forward it to him for the signatures of the Co-Trustees. Dear JoAnn:

I have agreed with Anthony O'Connell's attorney that we will provide them with a draft of the final accounting in the Harold O'Connell Estate. This, I think, will allay all of the suspicions that have arisen on the other side in this matter.

If you could commence preparing that, I would appreciate it. I am enclosing a copy of the nearly signed Agreement, by which the Trustees agree to take possession of the percentage interest of the property.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Mackall:

Enclosed is the draft by Ms. Barnes of the Final Accounting.

I have taken the liberty of correcting a typographical error on the distributions to reflect 53.9006% vice 3.9006%.

I would appreciate it if you would forward this to Mr. O'Connell and clarify with him his intention to qualify on May 1st.

If he does not agree or requests further delaying tactics, I feel that I have no other recourse in serving my client than to seek to have him removed as a Trustee. This matter is costing Mrs. O'Connell dearly with the delay.

Sincerely,

Re: Estate of Harold A. O'Connell
Fiduciary No. 21840

Dear Mr. McCandlish:

I represent Mrs. Jean M. O'Connell, Executor of the captioned Estate. Mrs. O'Connell received your notice letter of May 16, 1986, concerning the delinquent account.

The accounting in this case has been prepared by Mrs. O'Connell's accounting firm. This accounting will be a second and final accounting. However, the will established a trust and Mrs. O'Connell's son has been most difficult in coming to terms on qualifying as trustee of the trust. Both Mr. Henry Mackall, who represents the trustee, and I have been working diligently on this case.

In order to prevent my client from incurring double bills from her accountant and increased other fees, I would respectfully request a short extension of the accounting period so that the trustee can qualify and this matter may be completely closed.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Secrecy is fatal. Jean O'Connell and Anthony O'Connell are isolated from each other by a wall of secrecy leaving each dependent on what the accountants tell them. Behind this wall Mother is led to believe that I am the problem and I am led to believe that Mother is the problem. I believed Mother was the problem until I found her memos of the accountants instructions to her in her papers after her death. If she had not written the memos, if the memos had not survived, and if I had not found them, I would still believe that she was the problem. Mother died believing I was the problem. Sunshine is the only protection the family has.
