Last Will and Testament

OF

JEAN M. O'CONNELL

I, Jean M. O'Connell, of the County of Fairfax, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument in writing as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking all former Wills and other testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me.

1. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as promptly as practicable after my death. I authorized my co-executors, hereinafter named, to expend such sums as they in their sole discretion may deem proper for my funeral and interment, including the acquisition of any burial site and the erection and engraving of grave monuments, regardless of any limitation fixed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise.

2. All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, wheresoever situate and howsoever held, I give, devise and bequeath, in fee simple, share and share alike, to my children, JEAN MARY O'CONNELL NADER, of New Kensington, Pennsylvania; SHEILA ANN O'CONNELL-SHEVENELL, of Portland, Maine; and ANTHONY MINER O'CONNELL, of St. Louis, Missouri, per stirpes.

3. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said son, ANTHONY MINER O'CONNELL, and my lawyer, PHILIP D. SHALLOWAY, to be the Co-Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament, to serve without bond or undertaking; and I hereby waive appraisement of my estate. I authorize and empower my Co-Executors in the administration of my estate to sell, transfer, assign and convey, upon such terms as they shall deem proper, any part or all of my real and personal estate, at public or private sale, without order of court, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver proper deeds therefor, without liability on any purchaser to see to the application of the purchase money.

This has been followed by later will.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary Public, on this day personally appeared JEAN M. O'CONNELL, Kellie A. Johnson, Philip D. Shalloway, and Clement J. Wall, known to me to be the Testatrix and the witnesses, respectively, whose names are signed to the foregoing Last Will and Testament, and all of these persons being by me first duly sworn, JEAN M. O'CONNELL, the Testatrix, declared to me and to the witnesses in my presence that said instrument is her Last Will and Testament and that she had willingly signed and executed it in the presence of said witnesses as her free and voluntary act for the purposes therein expressed. Said witnesses stated before me that the foregoing Last Will and Testament was executed and acknowledged by the Testatrix as her Last Will and Testament in the presence of said witnesses who, in her presence and at her request, and in the presence of each other, did subscribe their names thereto as attesting witnesses on the day of the date of said Will, and that the Testatrix, at the time of the execution of said Will, was over the age of eighteen (18) years and of sound and disposing mind and memory.

Dear Mrs. O'Connell:

Upon reviewing my files I cannot find where you have paid for your Last Will and Testament. You stated that you had a cancelled check. Please forward to me a copy of that check so I can determine where that payment was credited. Usually on fee checks, we like to pencil in our file number somewhere on the face of the check and that reference would be most helpful to me in determining where your check was credited.

I discussed your objections concerning our fees with Mr. Wall who was quite surprised at your position. Since you feel so strongly that the work we did at your request did not justify the $600.00 charged, Mr. Wall authorized me to deduct $100.00 from the bill for the time he expended. You must remember the work we did for you was done without consultation since you delivered a file to us and was unavailable for discussion about it since you went out of town immediately after delivery. The file was reviewed carefully. Mr. Wall did contact and meet with the Commissioner of Accounts and reviewed your probate file at the clerk's office. We also made various telephone calls to your past accountants and checked the land records to make sure that title was correct. All of these things involve time which the Client does not see but the time, in fact, was expended.

In reference to outlining your fee to eliminate the Trust set up in your husband's Last Will and Testament, I feel that since you have disputed our time and fees previously charged to you, it would be better for you to obtain another attorney to provide that service for you. If you will recall, your husband's Will was quite long and complicated and removal of the Trust could be quite complex and time consuming, and it would be unfair for me to estimate a fee to provide that service at this time.

Remember your deadline to file your accounting is the 31st day of this month, and I wish you the best of luck in accomplishing this accounting and finding another attorney to provide the services outlined herein.

Very truly yours,

Philip D. Shalloway

"I also would like you to be at least courteous to my friends. They know you do not want them around so you may not see much of them. They are people who helped me when I was desperately in need of help and had no place to turn. Joanne especially was helpful. When [1] Ed Prichard was going to charge me ¼ of your Dad's estate for his fee and [2] Shalloway had a mental break down when he was going to work on the estate it was Joanne who helped me by explaining what I had to do. She did not want to be a co-trustee but I begged her and she agreed reluctantly tho she had never done it for anyone else. I still think [3] you owe her an apology and a box of candy or bouquet of flowers.* Better late than never. And I would feel ever so much better. Please. Just treat my friends like you want me to treat yours. ..."

Flag:

If you are led to believe that your established advisers are not serving you well or you should not pay them their full fees; and you trust that and do not pay them their full fee, it guarantees that your relationship with your established advisers will end.

Edward White only charged Jean O'Connell $50 for her new Will on May 30, 1985, naming Joanne Barnes and Anthony O'Connell as co-executors. Jean O'Connell's check registry shows no charge for the September 20, 1985, codicil to her Will by Edward White naming Edward White and innocent Jean Nader as co-executors.

Dear Mrs. O'Connell:

I am in receipt of your letter of February 3, 1985, and even though I did not remember keeping any of your papers I completely reviewed my file, contacted Mr. Clement J. Wall who also reviewed his file, and it is both of our recollection that all the papers, including the items you requested in your correspondence, were returned to you at our last meeting on January 3, 1985.

The two items you refer to had to be given to you because, without them, your accountant could not have prepared the final accounting that was due January 31, 1985. Perhaps you should contact your accountant to see if you gave them to her.

I hope you find your papers soon.

Very truly yours,

Philip D. Shalloway

Dear Mr. Shelbourn,

I admired the way you critiqued the contract of a friend of mine and how well you handled the problem of another friend I had recommended go to you. In fact there was no doubt in my mind that I could trust you implicitly to help me file an estate accounting.

I am sorry that the issue has become so confused. The enclosed check $80- I feel more than covers the time spent on what actually was useful to my estate accounting. That is calling the Com. of Accounts office for a time extension - 30 days - the same time the Sheriff's office was late in delivering the notice to me.

Dear Tony,

Sept. 6 1988

It was a treat to have your letter and especially nice typed. I never know for sure if I have read your writing correctly.

Thanks for the copy of the Accotink tax bill. I had called them (the assessment office) to find out why I hadn't received it. They told me "the name had been changed to Anthony M. O'Connell" but did not explain or say if you had paid it. I am relieved to know you did pay it. ~~As~~ I understand correctly that you will be paying the other half in Dec.? Anyway will you let me know when you pay it in the future as I do like to be sure its paid. The rate sure has gone up! I am sure there will be an accounting of what the trust owes as you suggested. Before tax time I have to have much information about what money has been put in the house since we bought it in 1937. I did the same when the county took land for the school.

We do seem to have a lot of misunderstandings. When I said I did not want to see the place again I was not referring to how you had landscaped it because I haven't seen what you have done. I would like to have seen that but couldn't get there and that you had asked me not to trespass. It was the drought damage I was referring to - the dead umbrella pine (value 1000 ±) the magnolia trees damage. I do hope you can get there in time to water the boxwood and that you will sell it or use it ~~something~~ as it is worth quite a lot. You could check a good nursery like Hills just off Glebe Rd. to get an idea of the price and then advertise it for sale in papers - Journal or Post etc.

The "no trespassing" sign has been torn off your barricade. There are 2 tiny wisps of cloth left. I could not see from the road whether the place had been ransacked or not.

If you want some one to check it, fix sign, water boxwood etc. you could call Warren Hosa flock 971-2529 - near where Dodson's live. He can also mow with The Snapper. Did it once for me. He is a retired post man. He may have sold & moved by now. &

J. M. Sheila and Andy were here the weekend before Labor Day. We ate lobster and crab cakes and shopped & shopped and traded clothes. It was a wonderful time.

I guess you must be having a difficult time selling your house and hope you have good luck soon. It must be very frustrating being all packed up and waiting. Have any nibbles.

I am enjoying myself more all the time. In fact have been so busy have missed many meals! It is really a delightful way to live. Have signed up for a trip to Richmond Art Museum and a trip to Ken Center for "Tosca". Shopping with the girls finally bought a desk. Wish I had one years ago. It is a delight to have places to put things.

Received the rug. Thanks so much for sending it. Didn't expect it until you came.

Sorry you that I resented your coming here. Quite the contrary. I think you should be here to take advantage of the prosperity and to enjoy your old friends and all the things there are that you are interested in.

You said you would like to air our misunderstandings which I think is a wonderful idea. I think it all stems from lack of information mostly. I would feel so much better if you could keep me advised of what you are doing with the trust and some of your personal plans - such as what you will be doing when you begin living here. Real estate - conservatorship or browsing for a different career. It would be so much easier if I knew what you were currently interested in. I try to keep everyone up on my main interests but think sometimes it is a waste of energy.

I also would like you to be at least courteous to my friends. They know you do not want them around so you may not see much of them. They are people who helped me when I was desperately in need of help and had no place to turn. Joanne especially was helpful. When Ed Britchard was going to charge me over 1/4 of your Dad's estate for his fee and Shalloway had a mental break down when he was going to work on the estate it was Joanne who helped me by explaining what I had to do. She did not want to be a co-trustee but I begged her and she agreed reluctantly tho she had never done it for anyone else. I still think you owe ~~her an apology~~ and a box of candy or bouquet of flowers. Better late than never. And I would feel ever so much better. Please. ~~Just treat my~~ friends like you want me to treat yours.

Maybe that is enough for now and you can have time to let me know how you feel.

I do love you - you know
