The accounting trail $1,475.97 - 816.00 = 659.97$ is an accounting entanglement created by Joanne Barnes preparing a figure for the trust's court account that was different from the figure on the K-1 that goes to the IRS and the estate when the figures should be the same; 1,475.97 was prepared for the Court and 816.00 was prepared for the IRS and the estate.

Edward White reported the difference of 659.97 as debt(?), and the 816.00 as interest(?), to the Court. The 659.97 should have been paid back to the trust
